

Turn your MS Outlook® into Gold

Relationships are the cornerstone of every successful business.

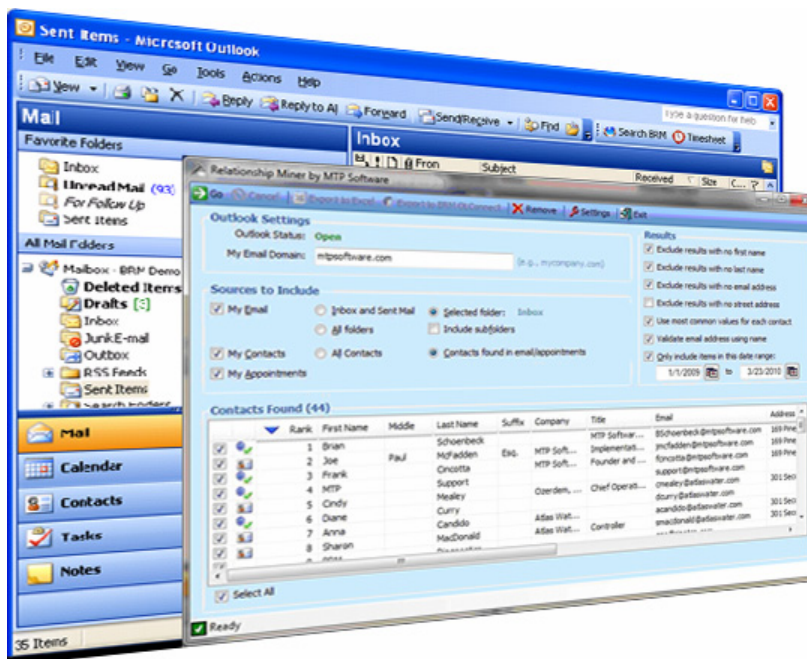

The hidden relationships that are buried in email and appointments can deliver real business value.

Uncovering and capturing that valuable relationship information can be challenging, time consuming, and cumbersome.

MTP Software's Relationship Miner™ is the answer

In a single click, Relationship Miner™ will:

- ✓ Automatically discover contacts and relationships hidden in your Outlook emails, calendar
- ✓ Eliminate the need for manually entering contact information
- ✓ Identify and rank your relationships based on correspondence and activity history
- ✓ Import relationship information into your Outlook, CRM system, and LinkedIn

Reduce the time you spend identifying your best clients and prospects, and maximize the time you spend delivering results to your business.
